@ Mosgiel Church

Everyone is warmly welcome!

Please bring a small plate of finger food to share as we celebrate God's generosity and abundance together.

With Gratitude

When Neville died and grief became my companion, I found myself lovingly embraced within the family of the Mosgiel/North Taieri Presbyterian church.

Thank you for being there for me in so many caring and generous ways.

My special thanks goes to:

Rev. Anne Thomson for graciously conducting Neville's Celebration Service*

Kirsten & Grant for meaningful music.*

Neville Williamson for his technical expertise so family and friends could join us from afar.*

Neil Jewiss for his artful floral and railway display on the communion table.*

The catering team on the day - how Neville would have enjoyed a few of those lamingtons!*

Ann and Kevin for welcoming all at the doors.*

You are a great family to be part of.

Thank you, Christine Winskill

We are celebrating our Future Ministry Fundraising Appeal today!

To all involved in the Appeal Team, for everyone who received an Appeal booklet and prayerfully considered a pledge, for everyone who has sent in pledges already and for all the pledges we will receive today – a big

Thank-You!

We have so much reason to celebrate God's generosity. In every season, He provides what we need, leads us with faithfulness, and calls us to share His goodness with others. As we give thanks for all that God has done among us, we also look ahead with hope, trusting that his provision will continue.

Celebrating God's generosity also invites us to respond with open hearts. Every prayer, every act of service, and every gift given in faith becomes part of the story God is writing in this church.

Through the Future Ministry Appeal, we have had an opportunity to honour God's goodness and help strengthen ministry for the years ahead.

May this be a day of gratitude, joy, and faithful generosity as we celebrate all that God has given and all that he is yet to do.
