Whanau Fun, TONIGHT at the Mosgiel Church 5 - 7pm
'Minute to Win it' games

Everyone welcome – bring your whanau, neighbours and friends.

Our church leads worship at Brooklands Rest Home on Friday 9th July - supporters and singers are always welcome.

Kai for Octacan, the spirit of winter giving.

Octacan, our winter can appeal is coming up THIS Thursday July 1 in the lower Octagon. Cans collected during Octacan are provided to local families who are facing food hardship through the winter months. This year we are holding Octacan on the eve of the rising of Matariki – marking the Māori New year, which is traditionally when harvested crops would have been shared.

We invite you to help us re-stock our Family Works Foodbank by donating 'Kai for Octacan'. This is a time when we gather and secure food for those in our community who are grappling with the impact of hardship, and find they need the support of our foodbank, which is Dunedin's busiest.

Rachel is happy to take donated cans to Dunedin.

Operation Cover Up (Mission without Borders NZ): Blankets and clothing (for ages 2 and above) made by knitters and crocheters in our Church Family to bless and warm children and adults in Eastern Europe will be displayed and prayed over at our Mosgiel 10am & 2pm services NEXT Sunday July 4th.

Small new items of stationery, toiletries or gifts for children will also be much appreciated, as will monetary donations to help cover the costs of freight.

If you would like further information about Operation Cover-up or our blanket blessing service, please feel free to contact Alice Robson (phone 489 4074 or email alice.inwonderland@xtra.co.nz) If you are free to help adorn our church with the colourful blankets on Friday afternoon (July 2nd) or help pack up after the 2pm service on July 4th, please also contact Alice.

Prayer Pointers: God loves to hear from us, so let's pray for:

- Whanau Fun this evening, for a good crowd of people enjoying each other's company, and open to God's love.
- Those recovering from and cleaning up after the devastation wrought by tornado in Papatoetoe and Wiri last Saturday, and the family and friends of the worker killed when the tornado struck a freight container hub
- Presbyterian Support Otago's 'Octacan' to refill their foodbank shelves next Thursday, for generous givers, happy volunteers, fine weather and safety for all.
- The Jones family, following Elaine's passing on Thursday, thanking God for her grace-filled life.

Musician Sought—We would love to have another keyboard player join our team we take turns to accompany sung worship at our Mosgiel 10am services. Please see Rachel if you would be happy to take on this role on a rostered basis.

NO MORE CHEQUES : We can no longer accept cheques because of banking changes. Please talk to Eileen Brunton if you need assistance to use another method for your giving
