Session calls a congregational meeting to be held on Sunday 12 July after the combined service at Mosgiel Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of electing Simi Tuiavi'i to the Session of Mosgiel North Taieri Presbyterian Church.

Simi was ordained as an elder at Christ the King Presbyterian Church, Porirua, and has been active in the Mosgiel North Taieri parish since moving to Mosgiel, particularly in the music group at the 10 o'clock service.

Following Simi's election, a service of induction will be held as part of a future service.

We celebrate – and keep moving forward— Ministry Settlement Board

Thank you so much to you all for the amazing response to the Future Ministry appeal – however you responded, thank you for the time you gave to prayer for the future ministry in this parish.

Thank you also for those who took the opportunity to read the parish profile, and for the comments received. The profile is now ready to be sent to anyone who asks about ministry in this parish.

The work of seeking the next minister continues, strengthened by the resolve shown by the congregation to back the decision to call a fulltime minister. You really meant it! The Ministry Settlement Board has prepared an advertisement which will be distributed to presbyteries and put up on Seek and Trade Me. We are also discerning whom we will approach directly. If you have a name that you wish to suggest, please talk to Brendon McRae (convenor) or a member of the Settlement Board. Just remember that the MSB operates under complete confidentiality – you will not be told what happens to your suggestion.

Above all, please continue to pray for the discernment process as it continues, for God's guidance both for the MSB and for the person whom God is preparing to accept the call to Mosgiel North Taieri Presbyterian Parish.
