Ready to celebrate?

Our Future Ministry Fundraising Appeal is well underway and we are getting ready to celebrate next Sunday at our combined Communion Service at Mosgiel Church at 10am.

The Appeal Team members are still following up the last few people to make sure they have their booklets and to answer any questions they may have.

Don't have your Appeal booklet yet? Please phone Lisa Wells on 021 374 094 and I'll get one right round to you!

We are running a Fundraising Appeal seeking pledges (gifts made over time) so that we can commit to call a full-time Minister to Mosgiel-North Taieri Church. The target is large - $400,000 in pledges paid over a three-year period – but this amount plus careful stewardship of the funds we have will allow us to confidently call a full-time Minister of Word and Sacrament.

If you haven't filled in your pledge form yet it may be helpful to be reminded that a pledge is not a legal contract, but your indication of what you are able to commit, based on your particular circumstances. Pledges can be changed if your circumstances require it over the duration of the pledge. You can defer instalments, or even cancel the pledge if necessary. On the more positive side, sometimes pledges are increased over the giving period.

Please come along to the Celebration Service to celebrate God's generosity and the generosity of every person in this congregation because of their prayerful consideration of what has been asked.

Thank you!
